

Weak Controls Extender Awaiting Truman's Signature

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The government's vast program of economic curbs expires at midnight Monday unless President Truman signs the watered-down controls bill Congress handed him.

Leaders in Congress expect him to sign it even though the measure passed by both the House and Senate in special Saturday sessions is far less than he asked. The fact that the bill survived a strong drive to yank all its teeth was considered a major administration victory.

But on the possibility that the President might not sign the measure—even reluctantly—congressional leaders readied an emergency resolution to continue the present law long enough for Congress to tackle a substitute bill.

The controls legislation, finally worked out in a lengthy Senate-

House conference, would continue federal authority to regulate wages and prices for 10 months—through next April 30.

But it would make several major changes in the present Defense Production Act. These changes would:

1. End rent controls on Sept. 30 except in localities whose governing bodies vote to extend them to next April 30, and in certified critical defense areas.
2. Toss out controls over credit for consumer goods and for conventional housing loans. The Federal Reserve Board could restrict housing credit again if the annual rate of new houses started passed 1,200,000. The present rate is 1,100,000.
3. Retain the Wage Stabilization Board but with limited power, and to make the appointment of its members subject to Senate confirmation. The board would be deprived of its authority to make recommendations in labor disputes unless the management and union agreed to ask the WSB how much of a wage boost might be granted in a dispute.

A major administration setback was adoption of an amendment to exempt processed fruits and vegetables from price controls. Price control officials said this comprises about 11 per cent of the housewife's grocery purchases and could mean a big hike in food costs.

The measure also includes a request—not binding—that the President invoke the Taft-Hartley Law in the steel strike. This would mean asking for an 80-day strike-halting court injunction, which Truman has said would accomplish nothing permanent.

The biggest victory scored by the administration in the compromise was wiping out a House-approved amendment by Rep. Talle (R-Iowa) which would have exempted from price controls everything not rationed or allocated. This would have meant an end to price controls since nothing is rationed and little is allocated.

The conferees also agreed to an administration demand for modification of a House provision, by Rep. Cole (R-Kan.), to guarantee sellers the price markups they used, individually, before the outbreak of the Korean War.

An Office of Price Stabilization spokesman said the compromise measure is not as strong as had been hoped for but is "workable."

One factor expected to play a role in the President's decision was a gradual climb in the cost of living in the last few months. The government's index neared an all-time high for the month which ended May 15, pushed up by rising food and rent costs.

Class of 1927 Holds Reunion

Half Of Class Together Again At Country Club

Thirty-eight of the 78 members of the class of 1927 of Washington High School gathered for the silver anniversary reunion of their graduation at the Country Club, here Saturday night.

Their husbands and wives, members of the faculty at the time of graduation, several class members from this vicinity who did not graduate, together with their husbands and wives, increased the attendance to 85. Despite the extremely hot weather, they lingered late visiting and reminiscing.

The class vice-president, Lawrence Moss of Omaha, Neb., was toastmaster for the evening. He first introduced the committee responsible for planning the affair, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Ervin P. Miller, Mrs. Russell Beatty, Mrs. Walter Beatty, Miss Marjorie Evans, Mrs. L. F. Everhart, Mrs. Alvin Little, Mrs. John W. Phelps, Miss Thelma Runyan and Miss Edith Wilson.

He next introduced Principal Frank R. Thompson, who spoke briefly to the group and then called on other faculty members present: Mrs. J. Roush Burton, Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. C. L. Ford, Miss Stella West, and Karl J. Kay. Each gave brief messages of greeting. Mrs. Ed Fite of the faculty gave the invocation before the banquet.

JUST ABOUT HALF OF THE 78 MEMBERS of the 1927 WHS graduating class got together at the Country Club here Saturday evening for a reunion on the 25th anniversary of the graduation. In the top picture, are the ten members of the class who did most of the planning and contacting of classmates for the affair. They are (front row, left to right) Miss Edith Wilson, Miss Thelma Runyan, Mrs. Susie Beatty, Mrs. Ruth Phelps, Mrs. Dorothy Everhart and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller and (back row) Mrs. Hazel Beatty, Mrs. Maxine Little, Mrs. Mary Alice Davis Campbell and Miss Marjorie Evans.

Prowler Shot Fleeing from Country Home

Scream In Night After Blast Fired Indicates Mark Hit

The next time prowlers visit the Granville Fugett home, on the Glaze Road in Marion Township, they probably will make sure no one is at home.

A prowler is believed to have been shot and wounded in his right leg, but he, with a companion, succeeded in making their escape before Sheriff Orland Hays could reach the scene, Saturday night.

It was about midnight Saturday night when members of the Fugett family heard a car stop at the end of the lane leading back to the Fugett home.

Shortly afterward Miss Mary Joe Fugett, sister of Granville Fugett, stepped out of the house to see what had become of the car. Her brother and a relative, were returning from Washington C. H. and she thought it was their car.

Instead, Miss Fugett saw a man prowling about the barn, and about that time her attention was attracted to another man who was seeking to force the cellar door.

Going into the house she grabbed a shotgun, stepped out and took a shot at the man who had tried the cellar door and by that time was trying to get away.

The man let out a yell, grabbed his leg, and limped away, she said. A second shot was fired at him by Miss Fugett.

He disappeared in a cornfield. His companion also vanished.

Later when Fugett, who had stopped at the home of relatives a short distance away, reached home, he took the gun and was able to get a long range shot at one of the men.

Sheriff Hays was then called and searched the surrounding area, but without success.

The investigation is continuing.

10 Ohioans Drown Over Weekend

Heat Wave Showing Little Sign Of Letting Up Soon

By The Associated Press

A blistering heat wave, of more than a week's duration in some areas, showed little letup over southern and central parts of the country Monday.

Some rain and wind storms hit parts of the sun-baked sections in the eastern half of the nation, bringing temporary relief. Rain fell in the parched Southern states, where crops were threatened by the prolonged hot-dry spell.

It was a weekend of stifling heat in many areas. Temperatures in the 90s to as high as 108 were reported in central and southern states east of the Rockies. Refreshing breezes and rain storms brought relief to hot spots in some of the Atlantic states.

The death toll from the summer season's longest stretch of hot weather mounted toward the 200 mark. Thousands have been hospitalized for heat prostration.

sections Monday, and fallen trees made its streets a shambles.

Damage there was expected to reach $500,000.

At the other end of the storm's path, hail and winds up to 60 miles an hour flailed Steubenville and Toronto and broke store windows in Weirton, W. Va., across the Ohio river.

CHICAGO, June 30.—(AP)—Republicans squared off in convention preliminaries here Monday—exactly one week before the bell for the main go-nomination of candidates for President and vice president.

And there were indications that the preliminary may be just as interesting and as hotly-contested as the main event. This is based on the phrase "Texas Steal" and involved a tell-tale batch of contested delegates.

Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio flew in Sunday night from Washington. His chief rival for the GOP presidential plum, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, booked a day of rest at his Denver headquarters.

Their representatives met Sunday night with GOP National Chairman Guy Gabrielson to discuss procedure for settling disputes over seating rival slates of delegates. Accord on some things was reached but not on others and another session was on tap today.

"Texas Steal" Slated To Be Important Phrase In Parley

ONE POINT at issue: How long should each side argue at the hearings opening Tuesday before the GOP National Committee? Previous time limits have been a half-hour each.

A committee spokesman said the conferees agreed to call contested delegations in alphabetical order, keep the meetings open to the press and public and send the arguments to a closed session of the committee for a vote.

The contests involve three convention votes from Puerto Rico, 38 from Texas, 18 from Florida, six from Louisiana, four each from Georgia and Mississippi and one each from Missouri and Kansas.

A sizeable chunk of these votes could tip the scales in a close fight for nomination. The Associated Press tabulation of delegate strength—based on avowed and conceded alignments for the first ballot—shows Taft now has 480 delegates to Eisenhower's 407.

Taft, who until last week predicted his nomination on the first ballot (he said he would enter Convention Hall with more than the required 604 votes), now says he will get the nod on the second or third ballot.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., an Eisenhower spokesman, pool-pools this. He declared Sunday night that Taft would never pull more than 500 votes and that Ike would emerge the victor by the third ballot.

YOU ARE PROBABLY WONDERING what this picture is... well, you are no different than Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brown who wondered what had become of their garden when they looked out in their back yard at 723 Gregg Street. Believe it or not, the garden is down under the huge limb that was knocked from the oak tree that was hit by lightning about 2 A. M. Monday. In the garden were neat well-tended rows of cabbages, tomatoes and nearly everything else that goes into a garden. The outlook for "putting up" any of the vegetables for next winter was gloomy, for you could not even see them under the mass of leaves and branches. (Record-Herald photo)

LETTERS of greeting from Superintendent Claude A. Bruner, Mrs. Albert Horn (Lizzie Ellen Green), Miss Gladys Melson, and Loren Staats of the faculty were then read, followed by letters from the following class members unable to be present: William Ireland of Kitchener, Ontario, the class president; Herbert Hard of Doncaster, England, the class historian; Charles Lynch of Dayton, class lawyer; Mrs. Theo Edwards (Elizabeth Burnette) of Marion, Ind.; Mrs. Robert Tanner (Florence Moss) of London; Mrs. Edward Wrench (Ruth Kay) of Denver, Col.; Francis Marion Kennedy, Mt. Surgery Cure Fails Burglar; He Sentences Self To Death

BUTLER, Pa., June 30.—(AP)—Millard F. Wright, 42-year-old confessed burglar who underwent brain surgery in a vain attempt to curb his urge to steal, no longer is tormented by his conscience.

He killed himself Sunday in a fit of remorse. State police at the Butler barracks found Wright dead in a detention cell. Around his neck was a makeshift noose; an artery in one arm had been severed.

Three suicide notes told of his regret for his life of crime. One stated:

"I am sentencing myself to death for all my evil misdeeds."

In 1947 Wright underwent an operation in a Pittsburgh hospital in which part of his brain was removed. It was believed the operation had eliminated his urge to steal. He was paroled from prison in 1949.

Two weeks ago police arrested him and found more than $25,000 worth of stolen loot in his Pittsburgh apartment.

HE ADMITTED 28 house burglaries in Western Pennsylvania and two in West Virginia. A few days ago he was brought here to show police the scenes of his burglaries.

State police said Wright broke his eyeglasses and used a piece of the glass to slash his wrist. He made a noose of his T-shirt and a small blanket to strangle himself.

His 27-year-old wife Roberta could only say, "Millard in my opinion was a very good man. What he had wrong with him was something he couldn't do anything about."

Wright's second note to his wife, whom he married in April, read:

"Goodbye, my darling. Give my eternal love to my good loyal wife who has been more to me than I deserve. I am sentencing myself to death for my evil misdeeds."

The third note:

"Dr. Koskoff, Reverend Swoyer, Bill Heagy, Chaplain Stremel, Father Hubert, and those I harmed, Please forgive me. I die in sincere sorrow."

Both names listed in the notes were those of Dr. Yale Koskoff, Pittsburgh, who performed the operation on Wright; the Rev. Grover E. Swoyer, a Pittsburgh minister; William Heagy, Pittsburgh police officer; the Rev. A. W. Stremel, chaplain at Western Penitentiary, where Wright was serving a 2 to 12 year sentence for burglary when paroled; and the Rev. F. J. Hubert, Catholic priest assigned to the prison.

Blonde Finn Crowned As Miss Universe

LONG BEACH, June 30.—(AP)—A perfect Scandinavian beauty—Finland's blonde Armi Kuusela—is now ruling as Miss Universe.

One of her country's official greeters at next month's Olympic games, 18-year-old Miss Kuusela reveled in her royal reception here after besting beauties from 29 other lands.

The fair, blue-eyed Finn was crowned with a diamond-studded coronet that once graced the heads of three Czars of Russia. At her coronation ball Sunday night, she received a motion picture contract, a $3,000 sports car and a $2,500 wrist watch.

Selected as "the most beautiful girl in the world," Miss Finland is 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. It is symmetrically distributed on a figure measuring 34, 23 and 34 inches around bust, waist and hips.

Miss Hawaii, dark-eyed brunette Elsa Edsman, 18, ranked second. Miss Greece, Daisy Mavrak, 18, of Crete, was third, with Miss Hong Kong, Judy Dan, 21, fourth, and Miss Germany, Renate Hoy, 21, of Munich was fifth.

NORTHEASTERN Ohio cleaned up debris Monday from a violent storm which whipped across the state and left thousands of dollars worth of damage in its wake Sunday.

The only casualty reported was Sgt. Sheldon Goldstein, 23, Cleveland National Guardsman. A lightning bolt struck him and burned his face while Guardsman were on a rifle range near Boston Mills in Summit County.

The storm line, drawn by roaring winds and driving rains, extended from Sandusky on Lake Erie to Steubenville and Toronto on the Ohio River.

The lake got in the act, too, by sending a huge wall of water rolling into seawalls, boats and cottages.

Hardest hit was Norwalk in Huron County. The city of 10,000 still was without electricity in some

Storm Lashes County Early Monday Morning

Relief—but very slight and temporary—from the scorching heat came with violent electrical storms early Monday morning that brought heavy rainfall over a large portion of the county.

Some hail was reported, in the path of the first storm that swept the county about 1:30 A. M.

Precipitation here was .58 of an inch, and cooling breezes made the latter part of the night much more bearable than the first, although at no time during the night did the mercury drop below 60 degrees.

Sunday was the second hottest day of the current heat wave which has established a new record for June. The temperature soared to 96 degrees, after a peak of 97 Saturday, which was the hottest in recent years.

The vivid display of lightning and the almost constant rumble of thunder for upward of an hour late in the night, aroused a large number of residents.

Lightning struck in and near the city a number of times.

The high humidity on both Saturday and Sunday added to the general suffering and discomfort. More hot weather is in prospect according to the forecast.

THE STORM during the night put about 200 telephones out of commission in the county and left some small areas without electricity for a short time. The wind, which reached violent proportions at the height of the storm, and the lightning combined to disrupt slightly the utilities service.

Crews of the Ohio Belle Telephone Co. and the Dayton Power & Light Co. were deployed early Monday to make repairs to the lines.

The repair crews reported virtually all of their trouble resulted from limbs with being blown down into the wires or knocked into them from trees hit by lightning.

The Ohio Bell Co. reported at least 10 places where wires had been hit by falling limbs. Most of the repairs were made before noon and complete restoration of service (Please turn to Page Two)

Remember that little yarn in this column about the worms devouring onion tops?

John Sherman Bowen, 1202 East Paint Street, brought the unusual worms and samples of onion tops to the office. The voracious little caterpillars were new to me, so I sent specimens, onion tops and all, to Edward S. Thomas, curator of Natural History Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society, Columbus, for identification.

I have known him for many years and have seen multitudes of specimens he has collected and has in the archives of the State Museum.

Here is his letter:

"The caterpillars seem to be those of the fall webworm, hyphantria cunea.

"While this species attacks a very wide variety of trees, this is the first time I ever heard of them attacking onion-of all things.

"Were a substantial number of plants attacked?

"Almost any poison for c'ewing insects will kill them."

So it seems that the onion-eating habit of the worms is new to science.

Ohio GI Dies In Gotham Park

NEW YORK, June 30.—(AP)—Pvt. Albert W. Johnson of Hamilton, O., on weekend pass from Camp Kilmer, N. J., died Sunday on a Central Park bench, apparently of natural causes.

He was a veteran of Korean fighting. Friends told police Johnson became ill and they took him for a walk in the park. While sitting on the bench, he collapsed and died. Police ordered an autopsy.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, June 30.—We could all make up our minds better about the presidential hopefuls if they'd just have a nice debate, face-to-face, on television.

For instance, Sen. Robert Taft and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower in one debate and some of the would-be Democratic candidates in another.

Then, after the Democratic and Republican conventions in Chicago each pick a candidate, those two winners could debate on TV. Not just or so, as often as necessary.

And none of the TV debates, before or after the conventions, would have to be 30-minute quickies. Instead, full dress debates, even if they took hours.

This wouldn't be asking too much of the men or the networks. If all the TV time already used by the candidates individually was laid end to end it would amount to many hours anyway.

THERE'S NOTHING new in the debate-between - candidates idea. It's at least 94 years old. Lincoln and Douglas debated before big crowds in Illinois when they ran for the Senate in 1858.

But presidential candidates never took to the idea very well, perhaps because it was always more comfortable, politically and personally, not to.

In the days before radio and TV in a country as big as this, if the presidential candidates wanted the people everywhere to hear and see them arguing together, they would have had to tour around like a vaudeville team.

There never was any reason, of course, why they couldn't have debated a few times in just one place. The newspapers would have covered every word for the people who couldn't be there.

There was still less excuse for the candidates not debating once radio had networked the country, enabling every one to hear them at the same time, no matter where they met.

Since radio can't transmit a campaign smile into a living room, some politicians may have considered it a disadvantage, particularly if, being invisible, they just sound nasal or noisy.

But now that TV stretches across the country, the presidential hopefuls have lost their last excuse—except one—for not meeting face to face where everyone can see and hear and judge them.

The one excuse: There is still politics. And if a would-be President thinks he can do better for himself by not risking a public meeting with the other guy, he won't risk it.

Leo Riding Bench, But Due Off In Time For Star Joust

CINCINNATI, June 30.—Leo Durocher, peppery manager of the New York Giants, must sit in the stands for the next few days—but he'll be in full evidence for the major league all-star game July 8.

Durocher, who was handed a four-day suspension by National League chief Warren Giles over the weekend, has the job of directing the ballplayers the fans think are the best in the senior loop when they tangle with the American League standouts in Philadelphia. Durocher was grounded for acting up in a game Saturday night.

Five of the National Leaguers will be from Lippy Leo's own Giants, but the Brooklyn Dodgers ran off with the "mostest" honors with seven players. Four St. Louis Cardinals, three players each from the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs, and one each from Cincinnati, Boston and Pittsburgh, round out the 25-player group.

Durocher will be manager of the National League all-stars since his Giants copped the pennant last season. Under game rules, he must start the eight players chosen in the fans' nationwide balloting, and they must play for at least three innings. The choice of pitchers is up to him.

THE COMPLETE makeup of the National League all-stars, announced through Giles' office here Sunday, follows:

Pitchers—Sal Maglie, New York; Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons, Philadelphia; Preacher Roe, Brooklyn; Bob Rush, Chicago; Warren Spahn, Boston; and Gerry Staley, St. Louis.

New Triplets Bode Trouble For Father

NEW YORK, June 30.—A proud father's new triplets brought him trouble Sunday—he had to admit he wasn't married to their mother, but to another woman.

Only two days before, 27-year-old Salvatore Searnati had been a happy man when a woman listed as Helen Minge Searnati, 28, had three girls.

He blithely gave pictures to the newspapers and basked in the public acclaim.

But Sunday Mrs. Mary Cosaluzzo Searnati, 27, showed up at a police station. She had seen his picture in the papers.

The proud papa, she told police, was her husband the father of her 4-year-old daughter.

They were married in 1947 and separated in 1950—but, she added, they still were legally wed and he was under court order to pay $14 a week for the child's support.

The district attorney's office decided not to take action against Searnati, a garage attendant. But it advised Mrs. Searnati she could apply for a summons charging him with adultery, a misdemeanor.

"I'm going to make him pay for all this," she vowed.

It Gets Hot In Moscow, Too

LONDON, June 30.—It has been hot in Moscow, too.

Not to be outdone by the American heat wave, Radio Moscow said the Soviet capital simmered in a record maximum temperature of 91.4 degrees.

It was the highest temperature ever recorded in Moscow and only 3.6 degrees below the all-time high of 95 on June 21, 1901.

Chemist Seeks To Harness Mex Volcano

MEXICO CITY, June 30.—A Texas chemist says he can harness the heat from Mexico's active nine-year-old volcano, Parícutin, to produce cheap electricity for the country's West coast.

E. H. Dignowity of Dnnison, Tex., said he had submitted plans to the Mexican government for a pilot plant to cost $17,200. He said Dr. Francisco Garcia Junto, the University of Mexico's chief physicist, was working with him.

Dignowity said this is his plan: Hot lava from the volcano 250 miles west of Mexico City would be channeled into a big pit to heat coils of cobalt pipe. Water circulating in the pipes would be converted into steam, which would drive electric generators. The Texan said power could be produced that way "at about 3 per cent of the cost of ordinary power."

People Can't Just Buy Good Government

In 20 years of New Deal and Fair Deal Administration:

The Federal Debt has multiplied 13 times;

Federal spending has multiplied 15 times;

National income (the money we earn to pay these costs) has multiplied less than seven times.

Knowing where his money goes, the voter in 1952 has the right, and indeed, the duty, to ask what he is getting in return for these additional levies that government claims.

Is government better? Is it more efficient? Less corrupt?

The answer must lie with the voter. If he is satisfied, he will return to office the present type of national leadership.

If the voter is not satisfied, he will vote for a change. Senator Edward Martin of Pennsylvania recently declared:

"We are fighting for leadership that will take us out of the financial nightmare of false prosperity.

"That leadership must come if our nation is to escape the tragic results of sky-high taxes, sky-high spending and sky-high debt.

"It must come if we are to escape the confusion, corruption and Communism which have undermined public confidence in the Truman administration."

Those who oppose the present national trend have a message to carry to the people that rings with truth.

It is a message that can be translated into victory in November if we all do our full duty as Americans.

That Red Hair

Scientists are still trying to discover what makes red hair red. The Lancet, British medical journal, reports that several color pigments have been isolated from red hair without explaining their effect.

The mystery of red hair's origin is deepened by the fact that even two black-haired parents can have red-haired offspring. Red hair occurs among all peoples, but is rare except among Europeans and their American descendants. It is most common in Scotland, where its frequency is approximately 5 per cent.

Weakening Process

Freedom automatically entails responsibility. One of the chief marks of the slave is that he does not need to be responsible because he has lost his authority over his own actions. And when the freeman becomes irresponsible, he soon becomes a slave.

Today the people of the United States are threatened by actual tyrannies from without and potential tyranny from within. But neither of these menaces so seriously threatens our liberty as our own irresponsibility. Whenever we subordinate the general welfare to self-interest (which is the essence of social irresponsibility) we weaken another stone in the foundation of our freedom.

Diet and Health New Treatment Found For Injury To Brain

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

A thin film of gelatin is now "pinch-hitting" for tissues destroyed in certain brain injuries. These tissues lie between the skull and the brain itself. Three delicate layers, the meninges, normally cover the brain and protect it against injury.

In brain operations, many times it is necessary to destroy part of the outermost layer, known as the dura. This also happens in severe brain and head injuries. The brain surgeon then has the problem of replacing this necessary tissue over the brain and is completely absorbed, and by this time the body has replaced it with normal healthy dura tissue.

Little Scarring

This type of gelatin does not irritate the body tissues and therefore produces little scarring. This means there is little danger of prolonged headaches and convulsions.

Many of the other substances which have been used to replace the dura have been very expensive, and had the added disadvantage that they could not be kept in good condition for a long time. The new substance, however, is cheap and gives us no important storage problems.

It seems likely that brain surgeons will find this method a great boon in their fight against head injuries.

Answer: It is not likely that you will consume enough meat from animals so treated to cause you any difficulty.

Nazarenes Asked To Strive For Cleaner TV, Radio

KANSAS CITY, June 30 — (AP) — Church of the Nazarene pastors and leaders have been asked to help develop a better sense of discrimination between the "evil and the good" in radio and television programs.

At the same time, a resolution adopted by the 13th Quadrennial Assembly of the church, scored the "low moral tone of much of the current literature, comic magazines and the contents of many books."

Delegates to the assembly represent approximately 250,000 members in 4,000 churches.

The resolution called for a halt to "the further encroachment of the evils of the day into the sacred precincts of the home."

"IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD"

Offer of Lewis May Boomerang

By Roy Tucker

WASHINGTON, June 30—John L. Lewis's melodramatic offer of a $10 million loan to Philip Murray's steel worker's strike fund may boomerang against the president of the United Mine Workers.

It has stirred talk on the curbstone and in Congress about a subject concerning which union bosses are extremely secretive and sensitive — namely, their enormous wealth — and vast annual income. They base all their demands on a plea of poverty.

Few individuals — or corporations — can match John L.'s periodical spending and lending sprees. In 1936, he tossed $500,000 into the Democrats' political "kitty" in return for Administration favors that rescued him from a virtually insolvent state in 1933.

A few years ago, he forked over a fine of more than $3 million for acting in contempt of those same Democrats. Now, he offers a small fortune to the one man in the labor movement whom he despises.

MOTIVES — The devious Welshman has two motives, both ominous, in the opinion of labor colleagues and the politicians. As always, they are a curious mixture of personal politics and economics. Otherwise, it is doubtful, if he would have drawn public attention to the fact that the "forgotten man" these days is not the average American workman.

John L. detests President Truman more than he came to hate Franklin D. Roosevelt. Although he fought the late chief executive, the miners' leader always admired the Hyde Park squire because they were alike in so many ways. For Truman, who started the proceedings resulting in the fine, he has nothing but contempt.

DANGER — Therefore, if his interest-free loan will tend to embarrass both the Administration and the Democratic Party generally, John L. is only too happy to oblige. A prolonged steel stoppage may hurt the Democrats in November.

An even more serious politico-economic danger inherent in the $10 million offer is that Lewis anticipates a strike in his own industry, either on Truman's time or the next president's. Since "big steel's" captive mines will be involved, he is placing Murray under moral and material obligation to support the miners.

ASSETS — The Lewis gesture highlights the generally unknown fact that the four major unions — the AFL, the CIO, the UMW and the Railway Brotherhoods — are estimated to own assets from between $200 million and $300 million.

Almost all of this treasure, save for relatively unimportant pieces of real estate, was accumulated in the twenty years of Democratic rule. Unions have become big business.

If their annual income, based on dues, fines, special assessments, investment returns, etc., were capitalized at 6 per cent, the going rate of interest around Washington, the net worth of the nation's unions would easily top $300 million. And they have been able to beat off periodical Congressional demands for an investigation of their finances as a possible basis for subjecting them to taxation.

There has been a suggestion that the current Cox inquiry into tax-exempt foundations should include a study of the unions' money matters. Although it is doubtful if the committee has the power to look into this question, John L.'s grandiose play has aroused new interest in the subject.

Some day, it is certain to fall under Capitol Hill or Treasury examination, although not while the Democrats remain in control.

MEMBERSHIP — There is a fly in this financial ointment, as Shakespeare, John L.'s favorite but unread poet, never said. It explains Truman's persistent effort to use his "Korean police action" authority to obtain the "closed shop" for organized labor.

Although the unions have become financially solvent and politically strong under the Roosevelt-Truman regime, their membership remains relatively static. They have enlarged their rolls with expansion of the working force and Administration aid, but not in proportion to the increase in the number of workers. Only about 15 million of an industrial personnel totalling 46 million belong to unions.

They can boost their membership only by forcing the "closed shop" on all industry. They demand this political payment now for fear that the next Administration might not be so friendly and responsive as the Missouri crowd.

ROOTERS — The Taft forces are guarding against convention galleries packed with Eisenhower rooters under instructions to whom it up for Ike at critical moments in the Chicago balloting. They recall how Philadelphia broker clerks chanted "We want Willie" in 1940, and the Wallace clique that helped to win him the vice-presidential nomination in that same year.

Representative John Walter Heseltin of Deerfield, Mass., is an Ike delegate. As such, he had obtained an extra ticket for his wife. When she found she could not attend, he promised it to the wife of a well-known radio commentator. Soon afterward, Heseltin got a phone call from Carroll Leech, a Taft manager.

Reece asked if Mrs. Heseltin planned to use the ticket, personally. When the answer was "no" — John was too honest — Reece explained that the extra Heseltin ticket would not be forthcoming.

Ironically, the radio commentator stars on the program of a Philadelphia financier who backs Taft. And so does the radioman's wife.

Navajos Have One Good Custom

By Hal Boyle

DENVER, June 30 — (AP) — Having trouble with your mother-in-law Joe?

Then take a tip from the Navajo: Put a silver bell on her. Then you'll hear her coming — and you can get out of her way.

The Navajos started this peculiar custom hundreds of years ago because of a superstition that if a son-in-law and mother-in-law meet face to face unexpectedly both would go blind.

They had another rather unusual solution to this old family problem. If a young Indian brave knew a widow with an attractive daughter, he would first marry the widow, then the daughter — and thus avoid having any mother-in-law trouble at all. All he had to deal with was two wives. Simple?

The Navajos, long impoverished on a vast, arid 16 million-acre reservation embracing parts of four western states, are America's largest Indian tribe. And instead of dying out they are increasing.

They still weave rugs and cast silver jewelry for the tourist trade. But they have a new source of income today — mining uranium for the palefaces' atom bombs.

The Navajos are held in high regard out here, and anthropologists think the white man will might adopt some aspects of their culture. They are a pretty well-adjusted people, and some feel that this is a result of their upbringing. Insanity is very rare among them. It is also said that no full-blooded Navajo stutters — an affliction which psychiatrists think arises from childhood insecurity.

The Indians make the world's best parents," one man said. "They neither pamper nor punish their children. They let them learn for themselves, and as a result an Indian boy is self-reliant at the age of 10."

If a child must be punished, he isn't whipped. One of his parents simply throws water on him — a great disgrace.

The Navajos are among the cleanest of primitive peoples and love to take sweat baths followed by a plunge into cold water. If water is scarce, they roll naked in snow or dry sand. Long before the virtues of chlorophyll were extolled over radio and television, these Indians had a way of removing body odors. They simply rubbed themselves under the arms with hot porous rocks provided by nature's free drug store.

But although they are Spartan beyond belief, they are more doctor-minded than the hypochondriac matrons who dwell on Park Avenue in New York.

Some authorities estimate about one out of every 10 Navajo man is either a medicine man or studying to be one. One reason is that medicine men get high fees and their fees are always paid. The other reason is that Navajos, afraid of illness, are greatly afraid of illness. They are also afraid of dead people, and will abandon their home if a member of the family dies in it.

Cancer and diabetes are rare among them. Tuberculosis is common, however, because of their restricted diet.

Today many paleface doctors say breakfast is the most important meal of the day. The Navajos anticipated this view with an old proverb: "What you eat before noon makes you fat." They also prefer tough to lean meat, on the theory it must stay with a man longer because it takes longer to chew. Butchers haven't been able to sell this revolutionary idea in the white man's world — but they are trying.

Navajos are so tough-bodied they formerly caught eagles barehanded and captured deer by running them down on foot in re-plays. But if a rattlesnake crawls into their home, rather than kill him they will gently shoot him out, explaining carefully that he really doesn't live there. They believe in a "live-and-let-live" policy.

These Indians are noted for their domestic harmony and have few married quarrels. Their home is a one-room, dirt-floored dwelling called a hogan, made of logs covered with dirt. The squaw is boss indoors, and she keeps it neat.

The Navajos don't go in for divorce as a hobby, but a wife is just as free to get one as her husband. Her method is to take her husband's saddle and other belongings and put them outside the hogan. If a husband wants a divorce, he just saddles up and rides away.

You can gather from this that lawyers don't do too well among the Navajos. The odd thing is that — with no laws to confuse them — most Navajos marry and live happily together ever after in their hogan-sweet-hogan on the range.

Charges Against Legion Untrue

By George Sokolsky

The charge is being made by certain groups in Hollywood that the American Legion has compiled lists of movie folks to whom the Legion objects and has presented those lists to the motion picture industry demanding action.

This is a wholly untrue charge. Much that has been written on this subject by Hollywood correspondents has been only partially correct. There has been apparently recently discovered that a program to clear Hollywood of Communists exists. A actually that program has been in being for more than a year and has achieved astonishing success, making it possible for men and women who regarded themselves as unjustly accused to clear themselves. And no one else can clear them.

I might say parenthetically that at the moment of his death, John Garfield was clearing himself. As I spent many hours with Garfield on this subject, I know precisely what the status of his relationship to this problem was.

The House committee on un-American activities is too slow in this work. X's name is mentioned by a witness. He may never be called to explain the mention. As long as his name stands on a list, he may not be able to work because the employers cannot risk boycotts or picket lines.

Under the program, all X needs to do is to write a letter to his company explaining the citation. This is processed. He could be cleared and often is by his own statement.

I know of a writer whose name had appeared in a state legislative investigation for many years. He knew nothing about it. When it was called to his attention, he took immediate steps to establish the incorrectness of the citation. He encountered no difficulties.

The House committee on un-American activities, for one reason or another, seeks only "friendly witnesses." A "friendly witness" usually makes wonderful headlines, but that is not scientific investigation. For instance, one "friendly witness" mentioned more than 100 names; yet the committee has not established the bonafides of those 100 names.

However, every one of those mentioned has had an opportunity to clear himself or herself, if it is possible, by the simple process of stating the truthful facts to his own employer. A remarkably large number have done just that. In the course of the next three or four months, it is hoped that about 200 persons will have cleared themselves.

His statements to me were of tremendous value and definitely impacted a famous Hollywood personality as a left wing recruiter, particularly among young actors and writers.

Instead of hurting innocent persons, this program has given them a chance to clear themselves and in many respects those who have devoted themselves to this program have succeeded where Congressional committees have failed. There are two reasons for that:

The House committee on un-American activities is too slow in this work. X's name is mentioned by a witness. He may never be called to explain the mention. As long as his name stands on a list, he may not be able to work because the employers cannot risk boycotts or picket lines.

cess of stating the truthful facts to his own employer. A remarkably large number have done just that. In the course of the next three or four months, it is hoped that about 200 persons will have cleared themselves.

In the initial stage of this work, certain well-known anti-Communists labored in this field, helping men to save themselves and their careers, converting them to active anti-Communism. The problem was to get company cooperation.

The resistance to the program among management arose from three general causes:

1. Some believed that whatever was done should be through duly constituted authorities, meaning congressional committees. While the House committee on un-American activities does a good job, it lacks speed, its questions are not always the correct ones, and it cannot stop a picket line. Management is learning that lawyers, press agents and Washington fixers will not serve.

Some in management have bad records themselves. A sudden reversion to Americanism, loudly shouted over microphones, does not clear past activities. In one such instance, the individual concerned apparently believes that is would be undignified for him to write such a clearing letter to his company. Maybe it is for him. But he made the record.

3. The third resistant element was those who believe that the industry should handle this problem itself. The industry has had that opportunity since 1947 when it met at the Waldorf-Astoria for that purpose. From then until the summer of 1951, when the first company, Columbia, went to work on the program, the industry has actually done nothing but cover up.

The important point to make is that no one but a Communist

U. S. Has New Atomic Gains But Reds Also Improving

WASHINGTON, June 30 —Hints of major American developments in the field of atomic energy Saturday eased the shock of jolting new estimates of Soviet atomic and air power.

Optimism stemmed from a White House visit of the nation's top atomic experts. One of them, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission's General Advisory Committee, said later:

"There have been such great developments in atomic energy we felt we should report on these directly to the President. We wish we could say what was in the report, but we cannot."

The grimmer side of the picture was revealed in screened testimony of top Air Force and Pentagon leaders before the Senate Appropriations Committee.

URGING approval of the $46 billion defense money bill, Gen. Nathan F. Twining, acting head of the Air Force, said Russians soon may have enough atomic bombs to launch a surprise attack "plus a reserve for succeeding tries if the first should fail."

Twining said the Russians, while boosting their atomic stockpile have also developed a powerful long-range bomber capable of delivering atomic weapons against distant targets.

"It is of some significance that a new long-range Soviet bomber of original design was observed over Moscow last summer," he said.

The White House visit Friday of Dr. Oppenheimer and AEC Chairman Gordon Dean touched off widespread speculation over what the "great developments" Dr. Oppenheimer mentioned might be.

Some believed they could mean success in the search for the hydrogen "hell bomb," underway since Jan. 31, 1950.

Others said it might be good news about work on the new atomic submarine and atomic airplane, or on progress in the field of atomic artillery.

Some said it might have something to do with harnessing atomic energy for peacetime purposes.

Thieving Snake Disrupts Service

A snake, bent on devouring some young robins in a nest in the sub-station of the Inter County Rural Electric Co., short circuited 2,000 customers out of service for an hour or more, ruined $750 worth of liquid fuses, and caused other expense, a mile west of Petersburg in Highland County.

The snake had short circuited 69,000 volts of electricity which fried it to a crisp instantly.

Half of the co-operative system was put out of service.

60 Percent Majority On Levies Hit

COLUMBUS, June 30 —The Ohio Education Association believes the "king-size" majority vote requirements for school levies and bond issues are placing control of public schools in the hands of a minority.

T. G. O'Keefe, OEA research director, cited the 60 per cent majority requirement for school issues at primary and special elections as the reason for the defeat of most of the school issues which lost in Ohio this year.

All but seven of 24 school bond issues defeated between Jan. 1 and May 6 would have passed had a simple majority vote been required, O'Keefe contended in a statement. Seven of 12 levies lost for the same reason in that period.

O'Keefe said the "discriminatory legal hurdle" requiring the 60 per cent vote is placing control of the public schools in the hands of a 40 per cent minority.

The 60 per cent majority is required for both levies and bond issues at special and primary elections, but only a bare majority for operating levies and a 55 per cent majority on bond issues is needed at November elections.

Mrs. Mitchell's songs included "Because" D'hardelot, "I Love Thee" — Greig, "Through the Years"—Youmans, and the Lord's Prayer—Mallotte, as a final blessing for the ceremony. Miss Craft's selections were, "Evening Star"—Wagner, "O Promise Me"—De Koven, "Traumerer"—Schumann "Leibestraum"—Liszt, "Meditation"—from Thais the Alpha Delta Pi Sweetheart Song, and the wedding marches.

Attendants for the bride were Mrs. Duane Liller of Columbus as matron of honor, Mrs. Robert McCoy, of Xenia as bride's matron, Miss Margaret Henderson of New Athens, Miss Martha Nichols of Pataskala as bridesmaids little Miss Linda Sue Enslen of Fort Thomas, Ky., as junior bridesmaid and Master Herbert Libbey, nephew of the bridegroom as ring bearer.

Mr. Walter Bumgarner, Jr., of Columbus served as best man for the bridegroom and ushers were James Perrill, Marilyn Reno, Robert Denton, Bill Campbell, Lawrence Dumford and Richard Willis, Jr.

The bride was escorted down the candlelighted aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage, and she was beautifully gowned in ivory satin and chantly lace in a bouquet design which designed the molded bodice, with a portrait neckline, outlined with puffs of illusion, long pointed sleeves, and a full satin skirt falling in graceful folds into a short court train.

Her fingertip veil of filmy imported illusion was held in place with a calot of lace over satin studded with pearls and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses centered with a purple throated white orchid.

The attendants all gowned alike in soft blue tulle, fashioned with strapless bodices, with stoles of tulle over the shoulders caught with soft puffs. Their theater veils were of matching tulle and they carried colonial bouquets of lavender asters, and gypsophalia with pink satin streamers, with the exception of the honor attendant whose bouquet was of pink and lavender asters.

The junior bridesmaid in a floor length gown of blue tulle over taffeta carried a miniature bouquet of the same flowers and a matching velvet head band and the ring bearer cunning in a white suit, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

A reception for about three-hundred guests was given by the bride's parents following the wedding at the Washington Country Club and the decorations again featured all white in tall vases of gladioli and asters.

Mrs. Enslen received the guests in a dusty rose lace and taffeta dress fashioned with a lace jacket with taffeta trim, small matching lace hat with other accessories also matching and her corsage was lavender asters.

Mrs. Davis was wearing a blue lace and crepe dress with which she combined navy and pink accessories and her flowers of lavender asters were attached to her purse.

Mrs. A. L. Turnpseed, grandmother of the bride, chose a navy blue sheer dress with white accessories and her corsage was pink carnations.

The bride's table was covered with a white organdy ruffled cloth over blue with smilax dotted with lavender asters surrounding the base of the four tiered wedding cake topped with lavender asters, flanked white tapers in crystal candelabra, and flat arrangements of lavender asters.

Presiding over the silver service at either end were, Miss Mary Katherine Davis and Mrs. Paul Blackmore, with Mrs. Floyd McClain and Mrs. Jack Frost, serving cake and other assistants were Mrs. Robert Denton, Mrs. Robert Willis, Mrs. Glenn McCoy, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Carol Faisle and Miss Dorothy McGrew, and Miss Edith Guidi and Mrs. Edward Hatch III presided over the punch bowl.

Later when the new Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on a honeymoon to Fontana Village, in the Smoky Mountains the bride had changed to a

Old Cast-Offs Find Revenge Over Sabbath

Peddled Players, Managers Haunt Former Owners

NEW YORK, June 30.—(P)—Sunday was a day of sweet revenge for a flock of peddled players and marooned managers who came back to haunt their old stamping grounds.

Tommy Holmes, . . . Fred Fitzsimmons, . . . Dick Kryhoski, . . . Howie Pollet, . . . Joe Garagiola, . . . Eddie Robinson, . . . John Pramesa, . . . Hank Sauer, . . . Bob Borkowski, . . . Irv Noren, . . . all had the satisfaction of contributing to the downfall of their former clubs.

Holmes, fired a month ago as manager of the Boston Braves, faced his former hirelings for the first time in the role of a pinch hitter—and cracked out the hit that snapped a 5-5 tie and drove in the run that gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 6-5 victory.

Fitzsimmons, fired as manager of the Philadelphia Phillies six years ago to the day—June 30, 1945—took over the reins of the New York Giants due to Leo Duracher's four-day suspension, and directed his charges to a 12-3 triumph over the Phils.

KRYHOSKI, traded off by Detroit last February, cracked a homerun with two out and two on in the last of the ninth to give the St. Louis Browns a 3-2 victory over his former Tiger mates.

Pollet and Garagiola, battery mates sent by the St. Louis Cardinals to Pittsburgh last year, combined to lead the Pirates to a 2-1 win over the Redbirds. Pollet pitched a two-hitter. Garagiola scored one run and drove in the other.

Eddie Robinson, a former Cleveland first baseman, doubled in a run and scored another in the Chicago White Sox first game 4-2 decision over the Indians and smashed a two-run homer in the second game that ended in a 10-inning 7-7 tie. Darkness prevented further play.

Pramesa slammed a pinch hit bases-loaded single to drive in the last two of Chicago's seven runs in the ninth inning that enabled the Cubs to overcome an 8-2 deficit and defeat his former Cincinnati mates, 9-8, in the first game of a doubleheader.

Sauer, another former Red, kept the big ninth inning rally going with a run-scoring single after two were out.

Borkowski, who went to Cincinnati in the Pramesa deal last winter, smacked a pair of doubles, drove in two runs and handled seven putouts in centerfield in helping the Reds down the Cubs, 9-1, in the second game.

Noren got only one hit but it was a first-inning single that ignited a three-run rally against his former Washington mates as the New York Yankees went on to sweep both ends of a doubleheader from the Senators, 5-0 and 3-1.

VETERAN ALLIE Reynolds and rookie Bill Miller pitched the Yankee victories that widened New York's first-place lead in the American League to 4½ games over the runnerup Boston Red Sox. Boston moved up two notches past Cleveland and Washington although idle. Rain washed out the scheduled doubleheader against the Philadelphia Athletics.

Washington fell from second into fifth place as the Nats saw their five-game winning streak go up in smoke. Bob Porterfield and Randy Gumpert, a pair of former Yankees, failed to join the "Revenge Brigade" as they went down.

Church Crumbles For Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, June 30.—(P)—Bubba Church of Cincinnati still hasn't completed a game this year. Church, a 15-game winner with the Philadelphia Phils last season, hasn't one win to his credit, either, against two losses.

Sunday the Chicago Cubs came up with one of the most gripping ninth inning rallies ever seen in Cincinnati to pump over seven runs and chalk up an amazing 9-8 win. They lost the nightcap, however, 9-1.

Church was breezing along as

Bill Junk & Co. Win Best Ball Tourney--Handicap Field Shrinks

Bill Junk, shooting a 77 for the low score of the day, led his team to a three-point victory in Sunday's best-ball tournament. With the help of three birdies turned in by Herb Sollars, Junk's team came up with a best-ball score of 66, one of the best team scores ever made in this type of tourney here.

In second place, with a score of 69, was the team captained by Dr. Bob Hagerty.

The team captained by Bill Himmelspach finished third with a 72 and right behind it, deadlocked for fourth with 73's, were those captained by Ronnie Cornwell and Chuck Cummings. Bill McClean's team, with 76, trailed.

Here is the way they finished: Junk, 77, Jim Grinstead, 85, Harold Miller, 81, Herb Sollars, 91, and B. Henkle, 106 -- total best-ball 66.

Dr. Hagerty (only 9 holes), Wayne Shobe, 80, John Petty, 86, Ben Wright, 86, and Hank Lehn, 91--total 69.

Himmelspach, 78, Joe Tillett, 82, Karl Kestner, 83, Merrill Kaufman, 104, and Lowell Miller, 91--total 72. Cornwell, 78, Jim Jenkins, 89, Ed Korn, 99, Stan Hagerty, 96, and Jim Fox, 101--total 73.

Cummings, 82, Bud Schlue, 82, Gene Sollars, 102, Gene McClain, 92, and Cecil VanZant, 93--total, 73.

McLean, 83, Delmar Mowery, 80, Bud Dawson, 88, Jim Morris, 99, and Joe Garringer, 97--total 76.

Miller won the blind bogey, Kaufman had the most 6's and McClain the most 5's.

Sollars got three birdies, Junk two, and Grinstead and Miller one each.

THE FIELD OF THE annual handicap tournament, which has been underway for more than a month is gradually being whittled down through the regular processes of elimination.

Results of matches last week were: Joe Tillett beat Gene McClain 3 to 2; Frank Truitt beat Dan O'Brien by default; Hap Weatherly beat Fred Enslin 2 and 1; Ronnie Cornwell beat Himmelspach 2 and 1; Ed Korn beat Bob Wise 3 and 1; Dr. Bob Hagerty beat Bud Schlue 1 up on 19 holes; Howard Miller beat Howard Foster 3 and 1; Dr. Charles Pfersick beat Glenn Woodmansee by default; Bud Dawson beat Doc House 1 up and Harold Miller beat Ed Cunningham 1 up on 20 holes.

Matches to be played are: Dewey Sheidler vs Ed Korn; R. G. Webber vs Hap Weatherly; Dr. Bob Hagerty vs Ronnie Cornwell; Marvin Thornburg vs Fred Peterson; Dr. Charles Pfersick vs Howard Miller; A. J. Tannehill vs Brad Johnson and Harold Miller vs Charles Reinke.

Frank Truitt meets the winner of the Peterson-Thornburg match; the Reds swung into the ninth inning carrying a fat 8-2 cushion. After getting two out, Bubba crumbled and the Bruins romped.

Monday Night Softball Games Made Uncertain by Weather; First To Start at 8 P. M. . . . If

To play or not to play—that was the big question facing the headman of the league softball program here Monday morning.

The answer, however, was really up to the Weatherman, while Fred Pierson and Max Lawrence just waited with their fingers crossed and hoped for the best.

At mid-day, with the sun bearing down and the thermometer going up, they said there was a possibility that the second round of the league schedule might get started at 8 P. M., when Penning-ton's Bakers and the DP&L crew Industrial League are slated to play the first game and unbeaten Frenchmen and Rockers of the Fast League the second half of the double feature.

The start of the games was to be delayed until after a little testimonial dinner for Pierson at the Country Club is over.

The customary time for the first game is 7:15 P. M., but it was figured that there would be both fans and players at the dinner and they would be unable to get to Wilson Field before 8 o'clock.

Lawrence and Pierson said they were anxious to get the second round started on schedule if possible; that's one reason they refused to call the Monday night games off.

The field was muddy after the soaking rains of Sunday night and early Monday morning, but they hoped it would dry off under the blazing sun and stiff breeze before game time.

They agree there was about a 50-50 chance that the field would be in shape—if there is no more rain. If another rain came during the day, they said chances were that would blast all hopes of playing in the evening.

Rose Song is to be shipped to Baltimore next week with the Sanders Russell Stable.

In Saturday's race, she beat some of the top flight trotters in the country, including (order of finish) Vic Song, Famous Song, Jenko Hanover, Mighty Fine and Bangaway.

Puppet Potent In Philippines

Controversy Swirls Over Jose Laurel

By FRANK L. WHITE
MANILA —Jose P. Laurel, probably the most controversial political figure in the Philippines, is being urged by friends to campaign for the presidency again in 1953.

He made an unsuccessful bid against President Elpidio Quirino in 1949, as head of the opposition Nacionalista Party, but asserted he was beaten by fraudulent votes.

Last fall, Laurel was elected to the Senate by the largest majority ever given a candidate for any office in the island republic. On his 61st birthday recently he said his future plans depend on his party.

Among those urging Laurel to try again for president is Senate President Quintin Paredes of the dominant Liberal Party. Paredes was elected head of the senate when a Nacionalista senator, Felisberto Verano, crossed party lines to break a 12-12 deadlock which had prevented organization of the senate for 35 days.

A STORM of controversy swirled around Laurel since the U. S. liberated the islands from the Japanese in 1945.

Laurel had remained behind—as chief justice of the supreme court—when the late commonwealth president Manuel Quezon and Vice President Sergio Osmeña fled from Corregidor with General MacArthur in 1942.

Laurel said Quezon had asked him to stay “and to what you can for the Filipino people.” During the occupation, the invaders set up a puppet government and placed Laurel at its head.

In the meantime Quezon died in the United States.

After MacArthur's forces returned to the Philippines Laurel went to Japan. He was charged with treason after Japan's surrender and brought back to Manila. However, in February, 1948, congressional approval of amnesty for more than 1,000 Filipinos freed him of the charges. A month later he announced his candidacy for president.

LAUREL'S FRIENDS insist that his charge of being counted out in the 1949 presidential race is justified by the recount of votes in the contest of ex-justice Claro M. Recto in the senate race of that year.

The electoral college reported a recount showed Recto, also running on the Nacionalista ticket, received 250,000 more votes than were credited to him.

Laurel's friends say he received as many votes as did Recto and that the 500,000-vote margin given Quirino over Laurel and an independent candidate, Jose Avelino, would be wiped out by a recount.

However, Philippines law makes no provision for a contest of the official vote for a president and vice president.

Laurel is represented as believing that the collaboration issue, which Quirino raised against him in 1949, has died out completely.

Asking Increase

COLUMBUS, June 30 —The Ohio Edison Co. has asked the state utilities commission for permission to increase its steam service charges in Akron, Youngstown and Springfield. The company said present rates are insufficient to cover increased costs of operation.

Several Hurt In Wrecks Here During Sunday

Sheriff Kept Busy Probing Accidents On Highways

Sheriff Orland Hays investigated three wrecks, over the weekend. Several persons were injured, but none of them were critically hurt.

The first was at 4:45 A. M. Sunday on U. S. Route 35, at the Frank Rothrock farm, 7 1/2 miles southeast of Washington C. H.

Burns Crabtree, Jr., 19, Route 1, was driving a Buick, headed east, and was accompanied by Donald Cupple, 20, who was asleep on the back seat.

The car left the road, apparently when Crabtree fell asleep, ran in the ditch 420 feet before crashing into a tree. The car was badly wrecked. Both escaped serious injuries.

At 2:30 P. M. Sunday, at the intersection of the CCC Highway and Manara Road, Russell Poplin, driving a Chevrolet, crashed into the rear of a car driven by Bobby Klever of near New Holland. Klever said he had slowed down and signaled his intention of making a left turn into the Manara Road.

Poplin skidded his car 60 feet before it crashed into the Klever car, which was unable to make the turn immediately by reason of an approaching car.

Both cars were damaged considerably. While Mrs. Poplin was painfully hurt, three children in the car, as well as the occupants of the Klever car escaped with a bad shaking up.

AT 4:15 P. M. Sunday Sheriff Hays went to a point 7 1/2 miles northwest of Washington C. H. on the Jamestown Road where an unusual wreck occurred.

C. C. Davis, Parkersburg, W. Va., was headed east with a trailer containing a show horse which had taken part in a rodeo earlier in the day.

The trailer broke loose from the car and swung upon the left side of the road just as Joe Waddle, city, driving a truck, was approaching the Davis outfit.

The truck and trailer met head-on. The truck turned over three times in the ditch. The horse trailer was demolished and the horse badly injured.

Waddle was painfully hurt, and Roy Waddle, 69, with him, sustained a fractured shoulder and other injuries.

Both men were taken to Memorial Hospital and later dismissed.

Girls Staters Return Home From Columbus

Two Girls State delegates are back at their homes around here with souvenirs such as Gov. Lausche's signature in their scrapbooks and a few ideas on how democracy works in actual practice in their heads. They are Peggy McConaughy of Good Hope and Effie Rose Hobbie of New Holland.

Peggy for instance, knows what it takes to campaign for public office.

She ran for representative to the "House" from her city of "Catherwood."

Despite a lively campaign, Peggy lost, but she was appointed assistant to the Mayor of her city.

She also busied herself campaigning for a lot of other girls who were running on the "Federalist" party ticket.

One of the thrills Peggy remembers is the ride down to the state Capitol Building the girls took with a special police escort to clear the way for them.

The girls also visited several other institutions around Columbus besides the state capital.

Peggy said that the girls in her "city" were all very cooperative and that they had a lot of fun together.

Band Practice For Tuesday Night

The second practice for the WHS band is to be held Tuesday evening, William Clift, musical director, at the high school reminded Monday.

The grade school and junior high outfits will meet first at 6:30 P. M. in the bandroom followed by the senior band at 7:30 P. M.

The varsity musicians are now preparing for their annual stunt at the Fair.

Clift also issued a reminder for the senior band members who graduated this year to bring back their uniforms to the band room when they come to practice or anytime during the week.

The music director said he is in the band room from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. every day during the week so that uniforms may be returned there anytime during those hours.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Hensley

Funeral services for Mrs. Grace L. Hensley were held at 2 P. M. Sunday at the Gerstner Funeral Home.

Rev. Ray Huff of the Thurman Avenue Methodist Church in Columbus was in charge. He read from the Scripture, of mon.

He also read the poems, "Garden of Prayer" and "Crossing the Bar" as well as the hymn, "God Be With You Until We Meet Again." Burial was in the family lot in Bush Cemetery.

The many floral tributes were cared for by the pallbearers, Robert Harper, Kenneth Baughn, Claude Herdman, Jess Allen, Ralph Skeen and Charles Scott.

Seven Return From Convention

Township Officials Get New Ideas

Seven township trustees and clerks from Fayette County today were back at their workaday routine of making a living after a big week at Cedar Point.

They left here Tuesday for the resort on Lake Erie near Sandusky. There they joined 800 more trustees and clerks from all over the state for the annual convention of the State Association of Township Trustees and Clerks. Headquarters of the convention was at the rambling Breakers Hotel.

Three of the seven from here attended special committee sessions. Ellsworth Vannorsdall took in the meeting of the association's legislative committee Wednesday evening; Robert Cockerill, a member of the important executive committee, attended the session of that body Thursday evening and Lawrence Grim, the president of the Fayette County Association met with presidents of other county associations.

The other four from here at the convention were Edgar McFadden, Willis Ray, Lester Ellis and Guy Coe.

At the convention, Grim said, the trustees and clerks from Fayette County took advantage of the opportunity to exchange views with other members of the association from all over the state at the convention. They also heard discussions of problems that face all township trustees and clerks. Grim said that many of the ideas picked up at convention from the experience of others frequently could be adapted to use here. He expressed the conviction that the conventions have a practical value.

But, not all of the time was devoted to serious business concerning local township problems; there was time for relaxation and fun at the big resort. The long expanse of shallow sandy beach on Lake Erie was like a magnet for the convention crowd during the blistering hot weather.

Next year's convention is to be held in June at Toledo.

Auto Is Stripped At Nearby Cemetery

Sheriff Orland Hays was called to the Madison Mills Cemetery at 10 A. M. Sunday, where a 1941 Oldsmobile, believed to have been stolen, was stripped of tires, wheels, and other parts, and some of the other parts broken by those who stripped the auto.

The car bore license DN91, and the sheriff is checking the number to ascertain ownership of the car. People residing near the cemetery told Sheriff Hays that they had heard noises in the cemetery about 4 A. M. Sunday.

Sheriff Hays said that apparently the thieves had taken their time and had done a thorough job of stripping the car.
